BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1964

Debaters To Compete At Emory In Peachtree Invitational Meet

The Western Debate team will travel to Emory University in Atlanta, Ga., this weekend for the first big debate tournament of the year.

The tournament will start on Friday, Nov. 6 and last until late Saturday afternoon. There will be six rounds of debate scheduled for the two-day event. An added innovation for the tournament will be the "Alben Barkley Trophy" to be designed as a traveling award to the winning two-man, switch-side team.

George Wilson, sophomore in pre-law; Doug Matyka, sophomore in pre-engineering; Reed Morgan and Stan Whitaker, both junior English majors, will represent Western in the varsity competition.

Among those participating with Western in the 20-year-old meet will be University of Alabama, University of Florida, Florida State University, University of Georgia, Georgia Tech, University of Kentucky, Navy, Pennsylvania, and University of South Carolina.

The debate team traveled to Vanderbilt university in Nashville for a practice round of both varsity and novice debate last Tuesday. Western won three of four debates.

The college's novice debaters were Bill Seymour, freshman English major; Jeff Green, junior English major; Roy Gentry, freshman speech major; Phil Clore, sophomore English major. The varsity debate squad was also present.

Miss DeVries Queen Of '64 Homecoming

Western's Homecoming celebration began last Friday night when Bowling Green's own Christine DeVries was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1964.

The attractive blond has been winning beauty contests for the past three years.

She was Miss Monroe County Fair of 1963, Miss Warren R.E.C.C. of 1962, Miss Department of Economic Security of 1961, and was runner up in the Miss Southern Kentucky contest in 1963.

Besides being pretty, Miss DeVries, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeVries, is also versatile. Among her other achievements, she is the editor of the Talisman yearbook, co-captain of Western's cheerleaders, a member of Pi Sigma Upsilon social sorority, and still maintains an "A" average which entitles her to membership in Western's Honor Society.

How does Christine feel about winning this latest honor?

"I certainly was surprised. It seemed as if the school spirit for Homecoming this year was the best it has ever been."

When asked about her parents' reactions, the perky coed said, "My daddy is sorta fat and he was so elated he almost popped the buttons off his coat."

8:15 Curtain

'Six Characters' Begins Tonight

George Bernard Shaw once said that Luigi Pirandello's "Six Characters in Search of an Author" was the most original play ever written.

Western Players will present "Six Characters" tonight, tomorrow night, and Friday night in Van Meter auditorium. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

It is a play within a play. As the curtain opens an Italian acting troupe is rehearsing a Pirandello comedy.

Suddenly they are interrupted by six characters marching down the middle aisle of the theatre onto the stage. The characters constitute a family—more or less.

More Real Than Life

They demand to see the manager and insist that he become their author. They claim the right to be heard since the drama that they have to offer is "more real than life."

The father says that he has sent his wife who bore him one son away with a lover many years before. The wife has had the three other children by the lover who passed away two months ago.

The oldest daughter has become a modiste. This is where she meets her mother's husband. Each character wants to act out his remorse which ends in a mystic, tragic fantasy.

In the Spotlights

Frank Hammond plays the father and Brenda Guy plays the mother. The rest of the family is portrayed by Jan Norris, Jerry Hughlett, Don Strange, Martha Strickler.

Acting Group

In the acting group are P. J. Fuller, Claudia Fowler, Larry Phillips, Louatha Banks, Betty Sealy, Marcia Clifford, Donna Van Tuyle, Bambi Sauck, Sandra Bradley, Barbara Watson, Bill Troyan, and Pat Lykens.

The production is directed by Dr. Russell H. Miller. Leonard Hart of the English department is technical director and Asa D. Raymond is stage manager.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of Western Players. Reserve seat tickets are on sale in the business office.

All present residence hall occupants desiring to make dormitory reservations for the 1965 spring semester are to follow the procedures outlined below:

1. Obtain housing application form at the office of your residence hall.
2. Complete the housing form and submit to Housing Office with payment, not later than 4:30 p.m., December 15, 1964. Housing applications submitted after December 15 can only be considered for such residence hall vacancies as are available when the application is received.
3. Please contact the Housing Office for any additional information you may desire concerning your 1965 spring semester dormitory reservation.

Five Attend KIPA Meeting At Morehead

College Heights Herald editor Bob Adams was elected first vice president of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association in a meeting last weekend.

Four Herald staff members represented Western at the state wide meeting. Associate editor Finley Wilhis, editorial and general news assistant Tod Porter, advertising manager Colleen Riley and clubs and activities editor Margaret Ann Gentry attended the convention. They were accompanied by Herald sponsor Walter D. Richards.

Approximately 100 collegiate journalists from 10 Kentucky schools discussed problems peculiar to the college press.

Construction To Begin Soon On Classroom Building

Western's 15th major construction project since 1956 — a five-story air-conditioned classroom building — will begin soon on the campus.

Mechanical and electrical bids for the structure will be opened at Frankfort Nov. 20, President Kelly Thompson stated. General construction bids will be opened Nov. 24.

Construction is expected to begin early in December and the building will be ready for occupancy not later than the second semester of 1965-66. It will be located adjacent to the present Music Building and the parking lot at the rear of East and North Halls, dormitories for men.

The new building will contain five stories for academic areas with a six-story central area. It will have 65 classrooms, included in this total are five lecture rooms with a capacity

Architectural rendering of the proposed classroom building.

Faculty Research

Dr. Laux Continues Study Of Danish Political Groups

A grant from the Faculty Research committee combined with a deep interest in the people and politics of Denmark are two reasons why Dr. William E. Laux, Department of Government and Sociology is continuing a study of Danish political interest groups.

The Faculty Research committee approved a grant for Dr. Laux to continue research that he began while working on his doctorate. In 1953 Dr. Laux was selected as a Fulbright Scholar and was given the opportunity to travel and study in Denmark. During the year that he was in the country, Dr. Laux developed a deep appreciation of Denmark's culture.

Later, as the subject for his dissertation, Dr. Laux chose "Danish Interest Groups In Danish Politics." He returned to Denmark in 1961 to continue his research.

According to Dr. Laux, Danish interest groups represent the business, agricultural, and professional segments of the society as do interest groups in this country. But since Denmark has a multi-party system and a parliamentary form of government, the interest groups must necessarily employ somewhat different techniques in attempting to influence government activities.

Dr. Laux says that Danish interest groups are probably more active than their counterparts in the United States. They perform quasi-official functions by administering certain governmental programs. The interest groups help resolve many issues and bring the government closer to the Danish people.

Dr. Laux hopes to have some of his work published. He says also that he will soon introduce some of the results of his research to students in the comparative government courses that he teaches.

'Voices' Needs Material For Publication

Voices, a publication of Western Writers, requests that students desiring to contribute articles or illustrations to the magazine turn the material in by Dec. 1. The material can be turned in to Charles Whitaker, Libby Thompson, Carol Blankenship, or placed in the mailbox of Joseph Boggs of the English department.

At the end of the school year the Richard Oakley award will be given for the poem, short story, and essay judged best. The award consists of $5 for each winning article. The selections to receive the award will be chosen by a committee of judges.

25 Westerners Go To Warren Co. Jail

Twenty-five Western students were taken to Warren County jail last week. No, they were not guilty of a felony or misdemeanor but were led there by Mrs. Joan Krenz, their criminology instructor.

Mrs. Krenz recently came to Western and has assumed duties as fifth grade teacher at the Training School along with her duties as criminology instructor.

Warren County Jailer Raymond McClard spoke to the group explaining the operation of the jail and the office of county jailer. The group was then taken on a tour of the jail.

Military Men Reassigned Duties

Two members of the Military Science department have been reassigned to other posts. Sgt. John Rollins, the rifle team coach, will go to Owensboro high school and Sgt. James Fox, the freshman instructor, will go to Fort Knox.

Sgt. Rollins, who has coached Western's rifle team for the last year and a half, will serve in the same capacity in the Military Science department at Owensboro high school.

Sgt. Rollins has been recommended for the 20th Corp

Certificate of Achievement for the outstanding job he has done in his 18 month tour at Western.

Sgt. Fox, who has been here 28 months, will work in the operations section on the general's staff at Fort Knox as an evaluator. He has been the principle freshman ROTC instructor at Western. Sgt. Fox has also been an advisor to Scabbard and Blade and has been active in veteran affairs in Bowling Green.

He has been recommended for the Army Commendation Medal for Meritorious Service.

When in the due course of human hunger pains, one has the extreme urge to satisfy his or her hunger drives . . . It is only proper and fitting that he should not waste a minute or even a fraction of a second, but proceed with extreme haste to WESTERN HILLS RESTAURANT. As you probably already know, WESTERN HILLS' speciality is the quenching of those gurgling tummies. Many people think that the taking of some form of wonder pill is the only way to stop these unbecoming noises, but this is not true. The pill will only work momentarily and then . . . well, you're back in the same fix. The only real answer is to fill your tummy with some of those delicious dishes that W.H.R. has to offer.

Be like Tommy Meredith, Steve Matherly, John Daniels, Marshal Cloud, Phil Whiteside, Joel McCubbin, Lloyd Gardner, and countless numbers of others, who have treated themselves to the many gastronomic delights at WESTERN HILLS.

Collegiate Press Group Will Boost Journalism

Your college newspaper is an active member of a growing organization of Kentucky collegiate journalists.

The Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association, dormant since the early 1940's, has been revived this year. Members of the Kentucky Press Association, working newspapermen all over the state, have been influential in the rejuvenation of the college press group.

Purposes of the student organization are to promote freedom of the press in college newspapers, to encourage responsible use of journalistic freedom, and to encourage the exchange of ideas among student journalists.

The Herald staff is enthusiastic about the reactivation of KIPA and pledges support to the purposes of the organization in the hope it will make your college's newspaper better, as well as preparing better journalists to publish the newspaper which you will read in the future.

Herald Commends Local Broadcaster

The Herald extends congratulations to a long-time Western supporter who has recently won statewide acclaim.

Al Temple, station manager of WKCT Radio, was named to receive the Kentucky Mike award at the Kentucky Broadcasters Association convention. The award is given to the most outstanding Kentucky broadcaster each year.

The Herald congratulates Mr. Temple not only for his notable contributions to Southern Kentucky radio but also for his support of higher education by assisting many deserving young people through scholarships and financial aid.

His cooperation with the mass media department has provided experience for many students in the communications area.

The Herald lauds Al Temple — Kentucky broadcaster of the year.

Urge Action To Prevent Traffic Tragedy Here

The Park City Daily News — on Oct. 22 — supported an editorial published in The Herald the previous day concerning the need of a traffic light at the corner of 14th and Center streets. However, to this date nothing has been done to alleviate this deplorable traffic situation.

It is hoped that something will be done at this corner before a catastrophe occurs similar to the one which occurred at a sister Kentucky school recently. At the town in which that school is located a traffic problem was corrected after a student was killed. It seems reasonable for state authority to correct the situation at 14th and Center before the need is stressed so graphically as it was at Richmond.

Cherry Hall Diners Club Memberships Now Available

BY FRAN NELSON
Herald Feature Editor

There is a way to please even the staunchest pro-automation thinker while simultaneously developing your leadership potential and retaining a tinge of individuality and superiority over the man-made machine. Be the autocrat of Western's automat, and the admiration of friends old and new will be yours for life.

Continue to read the step-by-step actions which one must necessarily follow in order to gain the distinction of czar of the Cherry Hall Diner's Club. You understand, of course, that you will not be alone in the contest. Many Hilltoppers search longingly for a chance at leadership and, upon finding an area with "room at the top," thrust themselves headlong into the dog-eat-dog competition. But with determination and originality (for you are not expected to adhere exclusively to this plan of action), you could very well be the victor.

First of all, practice various methods of entrance through those double doors providing access to the bookstore, post office, IBM center, and your area of concentration — the automat. Which style is best for you? One suggestion is a bold, brisk, bounding walk accompanied by a serious (if not sour) facial expression. However, you may find a more suave, carefree attitude more suitable. It is up to you.

Maze of Machines

Next, when suddenly confronted by the maze of vending machines, you must learn not to flounder about hopelessly like a troubled trout in turbulent tides. Be, rather, like a peaceful perch in pastoral ponds. Your first move, if you lack the necessary amount of suitable coins, is to float over to the automatic change-making machine. This stupefaction reduces the silver half-dollar and the quarter into lower terms: nickels and dimes.

Proceed nonchalantly to the vending machines and select your fare. The time of day, of course, will have considerable bearing on your selections. At breakfast time, for instance, you may desire a delicious honey bun. Later in the day your hunger may crave a chili dog, a chuckwagon steak or a ham-and-cheese-on-white. All of these items, and many more hot sandwiches, are available to you.

Your Choice

Your next consideration is your drink. There are no less than three beverage machines at your disposal. One, comparable to a good hostess, serves your coffee just the way you like it; you have your choice of cream, sugar, or any combination thereof. Also within this device is hot chocolate. A second machine provides healthful milk (two flavors) and orange juice. Carbonated beverages are obtainable from the third mechanized maitre-d'. If your taste rejects all of these drinks, there is a water fountain.

Food and drink in hand, proceed to one of several benches in the area and be seated. Never eat while standing; it gives an impression of uneasiness and desire of escape. How could you ever hope to become the autocrat with a reputation like that? Be seated, and develop poise in the art of eating without benefit of table.

People Watch

While eating, take avid interest in your surroundings. The atmosphere is marvelously entertaining. This article will not attempt to list all that you can observe, but will merely give a few suggestions. Compare the looks on various teachers' faces as they find nothing but educational journals and bills in their mailboxes. Count the number of ways the human race has devised to affix a stamp to the face of an envelope. Look through the glass doors into the bookstore and watch psychology majors trying to choose between two punningly clever contemporary cards. But don't become so engrossed in these studies of human nature that you forget to finish repast.

The Final Touch

Ah, desert! No meal is complete without an appeasement to the sweet tooth. Upon finishing the main course, deposit the wrappers, cups or cartons in one of two available refuse receptacles and head for the candy machine. Here, a wide choice of chocolates and nuts as well as gum and after-dinner mints can be obtained. Take your pick and enjoy. After desert, if you are one of those addicted to the post-meal smoke, buy a pack of your brand of cigarettes, light up, and relax for the few last moments before class.

Time for class. When you depart, do so with a contented air — well-fed, relaxed, happy with the world.

HILLTOPICS

Well, Homecoming has come and gone. Almost all of the available complimentary adjectives to describe the occasion have been exhausted. If one began singling out all of the people responsible for planning the weekend, the list would be unprintable because of its length.

Everything from the Pre-Homecoming Chapel to the Post-game dance was superbly organized.

A Tip of the Topper . . .

—to our wonderful 1964 Homecoming Queen Christine DeVries and her beautiful court.

—to Larry Hall who was in charge of preparations for the gigantic Homecoming parade.

—to all of the organizations who spent hours working on floats and dorm decorations to make this the most colorful Homecoming in Western history.

—to the cheerleaders for making this one of the most spirited Homecomings.

—to the student body for their enthusiastic participation in all of the Homecoming activities.

—to all of the new class officers elected recently.

—to the Topper gridmen for sending Eastern home to Richmond defeated and Westerners out to celebrate the victory.

—to the cross country team for extending their winning streak to 13 by dumping defending OVC champ Murray.

—to Dale Lindsey for his selection as OVC lineman of the week.

—to the seniors selected to Who's Who.

—to Dr. John Scarborough for his selection as Troy State College Alumnus of the Year.

—to Jane Baize who was selected Pershing Rifles Regimental sponsor by representatives from 11 state colleges.

Now that Homecoming festivities are over, the Greeks will get down to business with pledgship beginning for the fraternities soon and continuing into the second week for the sororities.

ALPHA GAMMA RHO

Six members of Alpha Gamma Rho attended the fraternity's national convention at Colorado State, Fort Collins, Colo., from Aug 30-Sept 3. The members attending from Western were: juniors Jack Britt and Bob Cole; seniors Norman Duncan, Jim Hundley and Harry Williams; and sophomore Bill Tucker.

On the way to Colorado State they visited the University of Kansas and Kansas State.

While at the convention they went on a tour by bus to the University of Colorado, the Air Force Academy, Manford Feed Lots, Estes Park, and Rocky Mt. National Park.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Pi Kappa Alpha colony is now taking a short breather before starting its next project, pledgship. After sinking themselves wholeheartedly into the Homecoming Weekend, the Pikes stepped back for a critical analysis of the festivities.

The Pi KA's float was selected first in competition with other well executed floats from other Greek organizations. The appearance of all of these floats, and the workmanship and

Reception Honoring Denhardt Will Be Sunday, November 8

A tea and reception will be given Sunday afternoon, November 8 for J. G. Denhardt Jr., author of a new book, Complete Guide to Estate Accounting and Taxes.

The tea will be from 2:30 to 4:30 at the Faculty House.

J. G. Denhardt Jr., a graduate of Western and of the old Bowling Green College of Commerce, has completed a book entitled "A Complete Guide to Estate Accounting and Taxes" published by Prentice-Hall, Inc. The 214-page book sells for $15 and has been called the first comprehensive work in the field.

Denhardt, a Bowling Green certified public accountant and lecturer in accounting at Western, is a former chief auditor for the Kentucky Unemployment Compensation.

The writing of his book came after he worked as an executor to the estate of the late C. W. Lampkin, a wealthy hotelman and former Mayor of Bowling Green.

Denhardt has had several of his articles appear in professional magazines. He also is on the advisory board of "The Journal of Accountancy."

He is a member of Jones and Denhardt accounting firm with offices in Bowling Green.

Girls Needed To Assist In B. G. Scouting

Women students at Western who have had senior scouting experience are needed to serve as consultants in Bowling Green's Girl Scout program this year.

These girls will work with various age groups in arts and crafts, camping, or other capacities.

Any qualified Western coeds interested in being a leader, assistant leader, or consultant for Bowling Green and Warren County Girl Scouts should contact Mrs. Dale Evans, at 842-2313.

Folklorist, Daughter Present Folk Music

Popular folk music was the subject of the Leiper English club meeting last night.

Dr. Kenneth W. Clarke spoke on the subject and his daughter gave some demonstrations.

Dr. Clarke, a member of the English department, came to Western this year from Indiana University. He and his wife have written a book, An Introduction to Folklore, which is currently being used in folklore classes here.

Dec. 1 at 7 p.m. in Snell Hall is the date slated for the next regular meeting.

Psychology Club Slates Meet, Officer Ballot

Officers will be elected at the next meeting of the Psychology club Tues., Nov. 17 at 7 p.m. in Room 19 of Cherry Hall.

A guest speaker will also attend. Meetings are scheduled regularly on the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

International Sponsor Hosts Party For Club

International Club members prepared for the spooky eve with a pre-Halloween party recently.

Sponsor Robert Wurster hosted more than 50 members and guests at his home.

President Edgar Goins announced that the next meeting will combine business and social activities and will be Thurs., Nov. 12 at 7 p.m. in the Temporary Student Center.

Newman Leaders Attend State Meet

Representatives of the Newman club recently attended a Regional Leadership Day at the University of Kentucky.

Lorraine Thomas, John Halminster, Joan Danielson and Joe Glowacki, all officers in the local organization attended sessions which dealt with club operation and organization.

In last week's meeting Newman club members heard Sister Mary Owen, a Maryknoll nun, tell of her experiences in missionary work.

Future activities planned include a card party, rummage sale, movie, candy sale and a communion breakfast.

Home Economists View Latest Fashion Trends

"Fashion Variety" was the theme of the fashion show presented by the Warren County Home Economists in homemaking last week.

Ladies' wear buyers for a local department store discussed fashion trends and selected clothes to be modeled by Western home economics students. Mrs. Elsie Green and Mrs. Max Potter directed the show.

In summarizing the fashion outlook, Mrs. Green said, "No one trend will be good — call it fashion variety."

Girls modeling were Sandy Smith, Pam Mathews, Ruth Adams, Anne Truitt and Charlene Whitten.

'W' Club Sets Dance At Regular Meeting

The "W" Club will sponsor their first dance of the year on Nov. 14, from 8 p.m. to midnight at the E. A. Diddle Arena.

The versatile Chevelles will provide the music. Tickets are $1 per person. All club members and their dates will be admitted free with the presentation of the membership card.

"W" Club members are reminded of the next meeting on Nov. 10.

Magan Is President Of Ohio Countians

Robert Magan was elected president of the Ohio County club recently.

Other officers are Don Turner, vice president; Judy Cox, secretary; Janet Porter, treasurer; and Kay Mauzy, program chairman.

A meeting is planned for the near future.

Ryan Named President Of Breckinridge Club

Danny Ryan was elected president of the Breckinridge County club at the first meeting recently.

Other officers are vice-president Bonnie Wilson; secretary Ruth Gail Claycomb; treasurer Frances Henderson; and reporter Nancy Shrewsbury.

A list of all prospective members was compiled, and the first Wednesday of each month was set for meetings.

Tomorrow evening is the next meeting.

Club Lists Officers, Set Hayride Tomorrow

A picnic and hayride are on the agenda for members of the Cherry Country Life club.

The get-together will be tomorrow night from 5:30 to 9 p.m. at Western's rear farm. Members planning to attend should meet at the farm, or if transportation is needed, meet at Snell Hall at 5:30. Interested persons should sign the list in Snell Hall.

Officers elected at a recent meeting are president Leland Green; vice-president Cecil Roundtree; secretary Luther Hughes; treasurer Hurston Holt; and reporter Phillip Sims.

Club co-sponsors are Henry

Amos and Orlando Alford of the Ag department. The club composed of agriculture majors meets in Snell Hall on the first and third Thursday of each month.

man hours invested in each are indicative of the spirit displayed during this past week-end.

The Pi Kappa Alpha colony float, under the supervision of social chairman Butch Rosenbaum, was preceded by cars driven by Pikes containing the Homecoming Queen and her entourage, and the Pi KA colony sweetheart, Susan Jackson. A fire engine of the local fire department containing a whole pot full of bell ringing, siren sounding Pikes followed.

Pi Kappa Alpha members from Vanderbilt and Murray State attended the game with the colony and participated in the Homecoming activities.

Jerry Cossey, Pike vice-president has been made ROTC Brigade Commander and Ken Duncan, Pike secretary was chosen to be in Who's Who.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

The women of Chi Omega sorority were the guests of the Lambda Chis at the first social of the year in the temporary Student Center Thursday, October 22.

Each of the women received a white rose and name tag when she arrived. Cake and punch were served in the dining room of the Center.

Folksingers Joe and Linda entertained while everyone was eating.

The Chi O's provided the lighter side of the evening when they presented three skits specially prepared for the occasion. Beverly Westerfield, Toni Martin, Becky Ashby, Gail Strausberg, Gay Martin and Cookie Sizemore were presented an engraved plaque for their winning effort.

Three white roses — signifying I love you, or in this case, we love you — were presented to Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl Sharon Goff, and Sally Smith and Miss Westerfield, also members of the Crescent club.

Susan Lones, president of Chi Omega, was presented a bouquet of white roses by the Lambda Chis.

The Crescent club, and Lambda Chi vice president George Sells were responsible for making arrangements for the social.

PHI PHI KAPPA

Pumpkin, corn stalks, and multicolored leaves adorned the Detrex club and provided a fall atmosphere for the Phi Phi Kappa rush party October 24. For refreshments there was a sixty pound barbecued pig. Miss Betty Jo Walker, the Sweetheart, served as hostess. The Ravens band provided the music.

Phi Phi Kappa Stan Ziedel, has been chosen as one of Western's representatives to the National IFC convention this month in Cincinnati, Ohio.

ON THE AIR

By Doug Hundley

"How I wish that I didn't have to walk up this hill to class every morning," said cello, foolish Melvin Agriculture one day as he plodded upward toward Dr. Cherry's statue.

Plodding behind Melvin was Samuel Agriculture (no relation), a lad of 20 years with rosy cheeks, majoring in toilet paper manufacturing. Samuel said, "Melvin, you cello, foolish youth, don't you know that in 1953 the entire Western football team tried to dig a tunnel through the Hill?"

"Were they successful?" said Melvin hopefully.

"No," said Samuel, frankly.

"Why not?" asked Melvin, dejectedly.

"Half the team started at one side, and the other half started from the other side, and the football coach couldn't make his ends meet," said Samuel, laughingly as he pulled a transistor radio from his lunch pail.

"What are you doing?" said Melvin, inquisitively.

"I'm turning on WKCT," replied Samuel, smilingly.

"Why," asked Melvin, stupidly.

"Because WKCT makes me forget about the long walk up the Hill. WKCT makes me happy, entertained, and informed all throughout the broadcast day. I always start my day with WKCT. I especially like to listen to Night Flight, between 8:30 and 11:00 Monday through Friday. And I really enjoy hearing Wes Strader calling the play by play for all of Western's football games. I guess WKCT is just about the best way I know of forgetting my troubles and staying happy," said Samuel commercially.

Forget your troubles. Stay happy. Stay informed. Listen to WKCT in Bowling Green. 930 on your radio dial.

at plans for the new five-story classroom building to be built on the campus during the coming year and saw for the first time the artist's drawing of the building.

The Board met on the campus at the home of President Kelly Thompson Friday afternoon and were guests with their wives of Dr. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson at a dinner following the meeting. The group remained on campus for a full day of Homecoming activities Saturday.

The Board discussed a proposed plan for the financial reorganization of the housing and dining facilities of the college.

The Board approved the construction of a new administration building on the campus following a report from President Thompson.

The new fee schedules to start in September, 1965, as adopted by the Council on Public Higher Education were approved by the Board of Western.

The annual financial report for the 1963-64 year was presented by President Thompson and was approved.

A general discussion was held concerning long range planning for the college. The development of all present acreage held by the college plus the land to be acquired in the Jonesville area through the Urban Renewal Program was discussed.

Present for the meeting were Maxie B. Harlin, Bowling Green; Dr. J. T. Gilbert, Bowling Green; H. Bemis Lawrence, vice-chairman, Louisville; Dr. Gerald Edds, Oathoun; and Hugh Poland, Guthrie. Absent were Douglas Keen, Scottsville, and Dr. Harry Sparks, state superintendent of public instruction and chairman ex officio.

of the Louisville Courier-Journal, spoke at the banquet session Friday night. Reeves told the students, "Don't leave your idealism on the campus." He urged them to continue in a journalism career after college.

Willis represented Western in a panel discussion on "Coverage of the Campus Press." He said, "Our biggest problem with the Herald is not getting the news but selecting the most important items for a weekly paper."

This was the first KIPA meeting since the early 1940's. The organization is being rejuvenated with the help of Kentucky Press Association officials. At the closing session, delegates adopted a tentative constitution and elected officers. In addition to Adams, others named are Roger Dixon, Morehead, president; Neil Latham, Union College, second vice president; Joy Graham, Eastern, secretary; and Ken Alexander, Georgetown, treasurer. Perry Ashley, University of Kentucky, is executive director of the group.

Congratulations

Congratulations to the Student Body of Western Kentucky State College. You are to be commended on your excellent participation in the 1964 Western-Dream Maker, Record Breaker Homecoming. With your help another dream was made and another record was broken in the true tradition of Western spirit.

to the campus and renew old friendships at a party given at Western Hills Restaurant. After the game Kappa Sigma had a private reception at Town Towers where many of the guests were staying.

SIGMA NU

"Eyes in the sky as Sigma Nu flies by" was the general thought as the welcome mat of the Sigma Nu colony was flown across the stadium during half-time festivities at Homecoming.

The banner was 325 ft. long and made of light-weight plastic letters reading: "Sigma Nu Welcomes You." Employed by the brothers, a crop duster flew the banner from Springfield, Tenn., and timed the appearance to coincide with the half-time show.

Now the brothers are settling down to the giant task of pledgship after Homecoming and the two rush parties. Halloween was the theme of the date party given for the rush-ees at the Detrex Family club recently. Termed by rush-ees and actives alike as a "wild bash," the brothers were well pleased with the last phase of their rush program.

Sigma Nu's smoker was held at the College St. Inn Annex with the heritage of Sigma Nu as the program.

Red Hot Western Eyes Morehead

With E. A. Diddle waving his red towel and leading Hilltopper cheers, Western dumped arch-rival Eastern 24-0 in the Hilltop's 35th Homecoming battle witnessed by the largest crowd ever to watch a southern Kentucky athletic event.

For the third consecutive week-end, the Hilltopper's explosive offensive attack and a crippling defensive charge led

Western to its fourth straight defeatless contest of the 1964 campaign. Coach Nick Denes' Hillmen will carry a 2-2-1 OVC slate and a 4-2-1 overall mark to Morehead Saturday (1 p.m. CST) for another important league contest. The Eagles, having dropped their last two contests, stand 3-2-0 and 5-2-0.

Jim Burt, Lindsey Blast Eastern caller Sharon Miller guided another devastating offense when his Western mates tallied 24 points within 12 minutes and 45 seconds.

A 22 yard punt by Eastern's junior halfback Fred Malins helped set up Western's initial touchdown three plays later by Jim Burt. With 6:03 left in the first half, Burt slanted 18 yards off tackle for his seventh season touchdown.

Place-kicker Sam Clark added his sixth PAT of the year and Western led 7-0.

Less than two minutes later, Topper linebacker Dale Lindsey blitzed Malins in the end zone for a Western safety.

Western fans were sent into a halftime frenzy by a Sharon Miller - Pat Counts 43 - yard touchdown pass with one second showing on the Western Stadium clock. Clark added the PAT.

In the third period, Miller out-foxed the Maroon defense by handing off to halfback Elmer Murray on an off-tackle counter for a 10 yard touchdown. Miller hit Dave Peak for the two point conversion and a commanding 24-0 lead.

So fierce was the Western defense led by Lindsey, tackle Hugh Sturgeon, corner line-backer Murray, Ed Crum, Waller, Charles Webb and safety Counts, Eastern advanced only to its 46 yard line in the first three quarters before marching to Western's 38 twice in the final period.

Saturday, Western will face virtually an identical offensive attack at Morehead which led the OVC until dropping contests to Middle Tennessee and East Tennessee.

Unbeaten Tops To Host Eagles

The OVC's two remaining cross-country unbeaten — Western and Tennessee Tech — are eyeing Friday's dual meet at Bowling Green's Municipal golf course at 4 p.m.

Western, under coach Tom Ecker, is one of the heavy favorites to win the OVC crown and are vying for its 14th consecutive dual meet win.

DeLuca Second

Last Friday, the Toppers edged defending champion Murray 26-33. Freshman Pat DeLuca will attempt to regain his winning form against the Eagles having suffered his first collegiate cross-country defeat to Racer Bob Giersburg.

Giersburg, who placed ninth in the Olympic Trial 10,000 meter event, won in 17 minutes and 45 seconds. DeLuca's time was 18:28 over the 3.6 mile course.

Trailing in the top ten for Western were Jack Mahurin and Butch Holden, 4th; John Sears 7th; Pete Sullivan, 8th; Rich Ziegler, 9th and Gil Hartman.

Lindsey Named OVC Lineman Of Week

His Jarring Play Led Defensive Surge

In Western's first three games, linebacker Dale Lindsey had a hand in 29 tackles. The Hilltoppers won one and lost two.

In the last four games, Lindsey has made or assisted on 47 tackles. The Hilltoppers won three and tied the other one.

The 6-3, 220-pound junior saved one of his best performances for the 24-0 Homecoming victory over Eastern's Maroons

Saturday and as a result he was named the Ohio Valley Conference's "Lineman Of The Week" today by vote of the league's coaches.

An All-OVC first-team selection as a sophomore last season, Lindsey was credited with five main tackles and eight assists against Eastern.

One of his "kills" was for a safety.

Halfback Jim Burt continues to lead the league in scoring with 42 points. Murray's Charlie Forrest is second with 38.

Quarterback Sharon Miller has jumped to fourth in total offense with 664 yards. Forrest leads with 1,054 yards.

Miller is third in the league in passing yardage with 588, trailing Forrest's 670 and Morehead's Mike Gottfried's 620.

Fullback John Burt is third in rushing with 418 yards and a 4.8 average. East Tennessee's David Holtsclaw leads with 523 yards.

"Pursuit" has been the keyword for Western's grid-iron fortunes this season.

"At East Tennessee and Middle Tennessee our defensive line over-pursued, causing an accidental opening of holes for our opponents," coach Nick Denes began.

Continuing his post-game analysis of the Topper season, the elfish mentor continued, "But our pursuit Saturday was the best we have had all year. We had a lot of gang tackling, and we tackled with enthusiasm.

"Against Eastern our offensive line blocked well. Particularly on those touchdown runs of Jim Burt and Elmer Murray.

DOUBLY-WELCOMED WIN

"Overall, it was a successful Homecoming, and it was a doubly-welcomed win because we beat Eastern," the Topper coach concluded.

Western's defense has held seven opponents to 984 yards net rushing and only 307 yards passing in seven games. The Western pass defense, headed by safety Pat Counts, has not allowed an aerial touchdown.

Offensively the Toppers are ready to enter the OVC stretch run in November with the passing of quarterback Sharon Miller and the running of the Burt Brothers leading the way to the goal-line.

Miller can surpass his total offensive output of 1963 by tallying 193 yards rushing-passing within the Topper's remaining three games. The Tangerine Bowl MVP has surpassed his passing yardage of 1963 by 120 yards and two touchdown bombs.

JOHN BURT NEARING RECORD

John Burt by carrying the football 24 more times will break a 13-year old most rushing play mark for a single season set by Gene McFadden with 110 carries. The six-foot junior fullback has carried 86 times for 418 yards in seven games for a 4.8 yard per carry.

Brother Jim, playing his final season at halfback for the Toppers, has crossed the opposition goal-line seven times this season. Jim has taken the pigskin 49 times for 206 yards.

Western has two remaining OVC contests, including trips to Morehead (Saturday) and Murray (Nov. 21).

And Western by tying Austin Peay and dumping Tennessee Tech, previously-unbeaten Evansville and Eastern, has moved out of the spoiler's role into the hottest unit in the conference.

Intramural Corner

The Women's Intramural Tennis Tournament has reached the final round in both singles and doubles. Facing each other in the singles will be Kathy Kulp from Newman Hall and Marty Schey from Potter Hall.

In the doubles competition it will be Kitty Proctor and Wilma Sharp from State Hall against Miss Schey and Sue Richards from Regents Hall.

In the bowling program there are 16 teams in competition for top positions.

The top five teams respectively are: Kappa Delta Alpha I and State I, second, McLean Hall I; third, McLean II; fourth State II; and fifth, McLean III.

The high individual game honor went to Carolyn Korb with a 213. Following her were, Jan Russell-164; Nelda Lloyd-157; E. Sanders -154; and Rose Baldwin-150.

The high series went to Miss Korb with a 518; second, Miss Russell-449; third, Brenda Duvall-410; and fourth, Miss Baldwin-409; and fifth, Miss Sanders-393.

Under the supervision of Joan Chase and Connie Moore, the volleyball tournament began last night.

There are 18 teams participating this semester, more than ever before.

The tournament will be played on Tuesday and Thursday nights beginning promptly at 6:45 in the A-A Building.

The governing body of women's intramurals, the Women's Athletic Assn., will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 in Room 144 of the A-A Building. All dorm representatives and sports chairman are urged to be present. Anyone else interested in the intramural program is cordially invited to attend.

ball last week.

Jefferson county once again met Roadrunners in a game considered a must contest by each; and again the Louisvilleans, just as in past years, came out on top with a 27-18 score.

The winners turned loose a torrid running game in the last half to overcome a 12-6 Roadrunner lead. The final minutes of the game saw the Jefferson Countians begin to dominate play and add insult to the defeat by forcing their foes into a safety which rounded out the scoring.

In other independent division action, Crimson beat Central Hall 39-12, Tri-County remained undefeated by dropping Crimson 27-12, and Jefferson got ready for the big one by bombing Central Hall 43-19.

Sigma Phi Alpha just kept rolling along by defeating fraternity foes Lambda Chi Alpha, 33-7, and Phi Delta Chi, 29-2.

The Sigmas are now 8-0 in won-lost standings and rate the favorites role for tomorrow's battle with Delta Kappa Nu, who will be playing their third tough game this week. This should be a great one to watch, and chances are there will be big crowd doing just that.

captured the TIAC cross-country meet to thrust the Eagles into a darkhorse role for the OVC meet at Murfreesboro, Nov. 21.

Top Eagle couriers are Gary Harrell and Bill Wells. Wells has never finished lower than third and Harrell was first in Tech's two dual meets preceding the TIAC.

Jane Baize Selected Regimental Sponsor By Pershing Rifles

Jane Baize recently proved the old adage, "You can't beat a Kentucky girl."

Recently selected as sponsor of Western's Pershing Rifles Company B-3, Miss Baize competed with company sponsors of 11 other colleges for Third Regimental sponsor. For the third straight year Western's representative has won.

Selection of Regimental sponsor is based on the applicant's personality, talents, beauty, hobbies and honors awarded. A personal interview is important in the final decision.

As Regimental Sponsor, she will attend all Regimental functions and carry on as representative of Third Regiment and Company B-3, the assignment of Regimental Sponsor.
